

DJ MaX

House, Mainstream, Disco / Luleå

Max Kentaraa is a Luleå-based DJ and resident at Holy Cow, delivering a house-inspired sound with a strong dance-floor instinct and a distinct mainstream touch.

With one foot in club culture and the other in Norrbotten's rave scene, he has the range to move from groove and atmosphere to harder, more intense energy without losing direction.

The result is a modern, dance-driven sound designed to lift the room.
